State Police said skid marks on the road showed that Jordan's car crossed over to the left side of the road for about 150 feet and came back sharply, hitting the bridge. They said he apparently was traveling at excessive speed and went to sleep at the wheel. He was alone at the time of the accident. The car, a 1956 Ford sedan was demolished.

State Police were called by the driver of a tractor-trailer who passed by and saw the wreck.

Born May 7, 1941, Jordan was employed by the International Shoe Company tannery in Marlinton.

Survivors include his parents, Jesse and Hazel McClure Jordan of Marlinton; two brothers, Richard and Lynn Jordan, both of Marlinton, and two sisters, Thelma Jordan of Charleston and Patricia Jordan of Marlinton.

Dilley's Mill Scout Reservation To Be Dedicated On July 23

Formal dedication of the new Buckskin Council Boy Scout reservation will take place on Saturday, July 23, at 3:00 p.m.

Boy Scouts and leaders from the nine counties encompassed in the Buckskin Council area will stand ready to open their new camping facilities for the first public showing and official dedication. More than ten thousand members of scouting families, public officials and interested officials and interested public are expected to look over one of the finest boy scout camps in the East.

The new camp, which has already hosted about one thousand scout campers this summer, is located in the center of the glorious Greenbrier Valley just 17 miles Northeast of Marlinton. It consists of 1800 acres, bounded on the North by Seneca State Forest, on the West by the Greenbrier River and on the South by the Monongahela National Forest.

THE PUBLIC IS INVITED

Every scout is quite anxious that the public will join in this festive day. Scouting activities typifying all of the skills of scouts and the facilities offered by this new camp will be on display throughout the afternoon and evening, ending with a ceremonial camp fire service sponsored by members of the Order of the Arrow.

CAMP GATE WILL OPEN AT 2:00 P. M.

Scout officials ask that every one planning to attend the dedication ceremony set their arrival for 2:00 p.m. or after because the camp is in operation and new units will be arriving and must be checked into camp prior to the dedication program.

It is suggested that every one plan this as a family outing and picnic, bringing the whole family and what food and refreshments will be needed for their evening meal. No food can be provided at the camp site.

All of the day's activities will take place around the beautiful 17-acre lake. However, swimming and boating will not be available to the public for health and safety reasons. Every youngster is invited to bring his fishing pole and try his luck at catching one of the big bass recently stocked in the lake.

V.V.U. HOSPITAL OPEN HOUSE SET FOR JULY 22-24

Mountain State citizens will have an opportunity to inspect the new West Virginia University hospital at a three-day open house scheduled for 2 to 4 p.m. (T). July 22, 23, and 24. Hospital Director Eugene L. Jones said this will be the last time to view hospital facilities prior to the admission of patients. The new hospital is scheduled for August 1.

Guided tours, led by Mr. Standish and other Medical Center members, will cover representative areas of each of the hospital's major departments.

Structure and equipment now being installed in the 2,156-structure preparatory to opening. Mr. Staples said 100 patient beds will be installed initially, but he expects that to be increased to approximately 200 within a year of opening date.

In addition to patient rooms, which are equipped and designed for inspection by the public, there will be four operating rooms, diagnostic X-ray and nuclear laboratories, a central supply, and a central supply. Nurses who have always been known as a "big kitchen" are impressed by the one.

Included in the tour are the staff dining room, its unique ceramic tile, its combination of artificial lighting, the chapel, which is a fine wood sculpture. Milton Horn of

Dr. McMichael Named State Archeologist

Effective July 1, Dr. Edward V. McMichael was appointed to the newly created "Archeologist" position of the West Virginia Geological and Economic Survey. Headed by Dr. Paul H. Price. The new Section of Archeology's aim will be to scientifically recover West Virginia's prehistoric Indian remains, which until this appointment had forced the state to rely upon out of state institutions to recover information about West Virginia's prehistoric inhabitants. While the archeological work done by particularly Carnegie Museum, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D. C., was much needed, and well done, it resulted in the Indian material recovered in their excavations being carried out of the state. In the future, West Virginia will be able to conduct archeological survey and excavations, and provide adequate cataloging and storage of recovered artifacts, without seeking help from outside.

In general outline, Dr. McMichael's program will be to discover and record prehistoric Indian "sites". An Indian site being any locale which bears some evidence of past activity, such as Indian camp sites, rock carvings, villages, or flint quarries. Archeological excavations will be conducted at these sites which will provide important information about past Indian life, or those sites threatened by destruction through flooding or industrial development. Finally, the information which the archeologist recovers will be made available both to the people of West Virginia through popular newspaper accounts, lectures, and projected popular publications and museum displays, and to the scientific discipline of archeology, through technical reports in professional journals and by papers presented at archeological meetings.

In order to carry out this program, much cooperation with the people of West Virginia will be necessary. Close work is particularly anticipated with the West Virginia Archeological Society, whose members have long done excellent archeological work in the state, and who were instrumental in bringing the present "Archeologist" position into being. But all the citizens of the state can be of aid, in calling to the archeologist's attention the location of Indian sites, collections of Indian relics, and important sites which are threatened with destruction. If you know of such information please forward it to Dr. McMichael, West Virginia Geological and Economic Survey, Morgantown. As time permits, Dr. McMichael will check into these leads which you provide. In this fashion, the archeologist can and will through your help, record and preserve West Virginia's prehistoric heritage.

A recent map lists 13 different names for the word 'mountain'. They are: berg, giri, kangri, kilima, kuh, mir, monte, nevado, san, shan, tagu, ula, and yama.

Clarence Bostic Killed In Automobile Wreck

Clarence D. Bostic, 30, of Huntington, Ind., formerly of Marlinton, was killed instantly in a one-car accident shortly before 5 p.m. Saturday, July 23, 1960, in Huntington, Ind.

He died of head and neck injuries when he was thrown to the pavement from the back seat of his car which was driven by Alton Packett, 18, of Huntington, Ind.

Packett and a third passenger in the car, David Taylor, 21, also of Huntington, escaped with only minor lacerations and abrasions. They were treated at the Huntington County Hospital and released. According to Sheriff Harry K. Walter, Bostic's body was recovered 50 feet from the overturned car.

Born at Buckeye, May 21, 1929, he was a son of the late Adger Bostic and Pearl Bolt Bostic, who survives. He attended the funeral of his father July 16 in Buckeye.

Other survivors include his wife

Sarah B. Cox of Huntington, Ind.; four daughters, Deloris Darlene, Denise Diann, Debra Dean, and Donita Dawn, all at home; four brothers, Joseph of White Sulphur Springs, Jess of Wayneboro, Va., Randolph and Jack, both of Baltimore, Md.; and four sisters, Mrs. Pearl Rucker of Denmar, Mrs. Martha Roman of Elkhart, Mrs. Gretchen Allen of Mill Point, and Mrs. Lenay Wilfong of Huntington.

The funeral was conducted at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Marvin Chapel Methodist Church with the Rev. Ezra Bennett in charge.

At approximately 11:15 p.m. E.S.T., Wednesday night the Republican National Convention in Chicago formally named Vice-President Richard M. Nixon as its candidate for President of the United States in the November election.

On the first ballot Mr. Nixon received all but 10 votes which had been cast for Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona. Senator Goldwater had withdrawn his name from nomination after having received a tremendous ovation but the Louisiana delegation gave him 10 votes anyway.

After the official tabulation had been announced it was moved to make the selection unanimous which was done.

The selection of Nixon's running mate will be made sometime this evening (Thursday). Although this writer's preference for the second spot is conservative Goldwater, the opinion seems to prevail that Nixon will choose U. N. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge.

FORESTERS ANSWER EMERGENCY CALL

24 Farm Accommodations Listed: 100 Needed

Twenty-four farm homes have been registered under the state's cooperative farm accommodations program at least 100 registrations by September 15 is the goal, Conservation Director Warden M. Lane said today.

In addition to the actual registrations, Lane pointed out, approximately 50 farmers have requested application cards with which they can register their farms as possible lodging for sportsmen this fall and next spring.

The Conservation Commission and the State Department of Agriculture are co-operatively working on a program whereby a listing of farmers willing to rent food and lodging to sportsmen can be made available to sportsmen desiring such accommodations. Farmers can provide food or lodging or both, Lane pointed out, and the price they wish to charge is up to them.

Application cards for farmers wishing to rent these facilities are available from conservation field personnel and the Charleston offices of the Department of Agriculture and the Conservation Commission. These cards must be returned by September 15 in order that the listing can be published by the hunting season which begins October 1, 1960. "We have special need for farm accommodations in the deer counties," Lane commented. "Many inquiries come in about lodging in the eastern counties every fall. We normally are short on accommodations

Durbin Kart Rival May Appear Sunday

Local kart drivers are wondering just what is going to happen
Sunday if Johnny Nelson of Durbin brings his brand new B Class
Kart to next Sunday's races at the Fairgrounds. It is understood that Johnny's kart is powered by two West Bend 580 engines which would put him high in the Class
B bracket.

At the last race fans saw Carl Depoy of Staunton turn the track in 23.1 with his custom built "A" kart. This kart is expected to return, along with several others from that area, to give the local drivers plenty of trouble.

Reports say the track will be in first class shape and the local kart owners are working hard to get every ounce of speed they can in order to stay with the expected stiff competition.

Kart Races Shortened By Heavy Downpour

Last Sunday's kart race program had to be cut short because of continued heavy rainfall but the customers seemed to think they had got their money's worth. The track was in fine shape and some of the fastest times of the season were turned in.

In a ding dong battle from start to finish, Billy Clendenen surprised the viewers by winning the first Heat race over veteran drivers Jody Moses, Harlan Grimes, and Tommy May.

The second Heat race was also a dinger with the lead changing several times. The final flag showed Jim Michael the winner with "Lone Ranger" Percy Moses a close second followed by Dorsey Moses and "Smokey" Johnson.

The women's Heat race was won by Pat Wooddell and the Men's Australian Pursuit by Harlan Grimes.

On Sunday, August 28, the local kart club is planning an Invitational Trophy Race. Invitations have been mailed to seven karting clubs in the bi-state area to bring entries. Beautiful trophies will be given the winners of the feature races. It is also planned to use the Le Mans inside track for the first time on this date.

Glenda Smith Wins Journal Award At 4-H - F.F.A Fair

Miss Glenda Smith, member of the Buckeye White Savages 4-H Club and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Glenn Smith of Mill Point was declared the Outstanding Exhibitor at last week's Pocahontas County 4-H-F.F.A. Fair. This achievement entitles Miss Smith to the Journal Award which is given annually to the winner of that title.

The Journal Award in the past has always been won by a boy, mainly because the young men have a greater opportunity to participate by entering exhibits in both 4-H and F.F.A. categories. However, this year the judges felt they could not ignore Glenda's splendid record as a 4-H'er and the fact that, out of a possible 400 points to be scored in her four entries, she had a total of 397 points. The choice was a popular one as evidenced by the applause of the spectators when the announcement was made.

Miss Smith, who has been in 4-H work for nine years and is a senior student at Hillsboro High School, will be presented with her trophy at the 4-H Achievement Day program.

Grimes Sets Track Record And Wins "B" Feature Trophy Race

Last Sunday one of the largest crowds of the season saw a track record broken and several thrilling accidents at the Invitational Trophy Kart Races at the fairgrounds track.

Harlan Grimes, local speedster, set a new track record of 22.6 in the time trials then went on to win the feature trophy race over a fast field.

Karts were entered in Sunday's races from Durbin, Green Bank, Alderson, and Marlinton as well as Staunton and Waynesboro, Va. Visiting karters were high in praise of the local race plant, placing it among the best in the East.

"Lone Ranger" Percy Moses finally got to carry the checkered flag after being declared the winner of the Australian Pursuit race. This race, scheduled for 20 laps, ended abruptly in the eighth lap when, of the remaining five carts, two tangled and wrecked in the first curve and two more repeated the performance on "Suicide" curve, leaving the "Ranger" alone again.

The results of the various events were as follows:

Letters To The Editor

1767 P Street, NW,
Washington 6, D. C.

July 29, 1960

Dear Editor,

The emphasis that both parties are placing on so-called "civil rights" may not, we suspect, be making quite the impression on the rank and file of our colored brethren that the politicians are straining for. Perhaps it is time to recognize that there are some "unalienable" rights that are beyond the power of politicians to give or to take away, to augment or diminish. "Equality" is a very misunderstood term. To accept and uphold the contention of the Declaration of Independence that "all men are created equal", it is hardly necessary to believe that all men are created identical, that all share the same capacity for work or play, for leadership or inventiveness or creative achievement, for fighting or for peace-making. Nor is it any more reasonable to expect identity of attributes—good and bad—among the races of the earth.

A forcible reminder of this comes from Editor Paul Dean of the ROCK VALLEY (Iowa) BEE who says, in the course of his

TAKE YOUR CHOICE (Editorial)

Examination and comparison of the Democratic and Republican platforms reveals a striking similarity, yet there are differences:

Where the Democrats stress economic aid, the Republicans stress military emphasis is on military aid. Both urge stronger defense.

The Democrats urge the Connally amendment. The Republicans ignore this. That stands between us and our destiny to the Court.

The Democrats would take from the Treasury to aid and workers injured by imports under GATT. The Republicans promise to do nothing instead.

The Democrats support at 90 percent and new subsidies to the Republicans. The Republicans brand subsidies as "cruel deception" and would expect the Bank.

The Democrats would the aged (all the Social Security. They promise a contribution to those who need it. The medical students

"Many of them live like white people would like to live—without trivial worries. To illustrate:

"I have a friend, Glen Houdek, who has sort of semi-retired and has built himself a home in Florida.

"When he was building his home Glen had a colored 'boy' doing odd jobs about the place. He still works a little even now that it is finished.

"George, the colored boy, was always broke.

"Glen asked him why he didn't save some of his money, put it in the bank for a rainy day, and all the other Franklinisms like 'a penny saved is a penny earned'.

"A good reason for not worrying too much... was uttered when George said:

"Mista Glen, if you was a colored boy for one Saturday night, you'd never want to be a white boy again."

George, and Editor Dean, have given all of us, of both races—and our political leaders—something to think about. After all, the Declaration says something too about "the pursuit of Happiness—and coequally, as we read it, with "Life" and "Liberty".

Sincerely,

Moore, who has served as clerk of Pocahontas County for more than 20 years, has at last decided to take leave from the Bank of Marlinton. Moore, in comment on his decision, said that, in fact his term had ended and he thought it was best for the health and happiness of his private life that his opportunity was open. Moore defeated the late clerk for the Circuit Court in 1938 and has been in office for six years since. Green Bank School News

Green Bank School opened with the addition of one new teacher Miss Anna Belle Sheets, in the 6th Grade. Miss Sheets was graduated from this school in 1956 and completed her elementary degree in Glenville State College in June 1960. She was a good student in both the public schools, and college, and we feel sure she will do a good job as a teacher in our schools.

Two years ago Green Bank High School added an extra incentive to the program in what we call a Merit Diploma. The idea in offering this diploma, in addition to the regular diploma, was that additional incentive might lead students to emphasize Citizenship, extra curricular activities and a background for activities they will need in order to fit into and become a part of a complicated society when they graduate from high school. A close examination of the following provisions in order to earn such a diploma, leaves the responsibility with the students. It is not a matter of competition with other students, but the responsibility of the individual student with himself. The student can judge himself as to whether he has or has not earned the diploma.

Any student earning a merit diploma will have an automatic recommendation to college. This is in keeping with the policies, on raising entrance requirements, which are being considered by many colleges and universities.

Family Finance

If you are among the nine out of ten working people in the United States covered by Social Security, you pay up to $144 a year (if you're self-employed) for three benefits. My question: "How much do you know about SS benefits?"

Social Security is not charity—it doesn't have to be in need to receive benefits. Depending upon your working record, you get payments on retirement after age 65 (62 for women regardless of your holdings or from investments or company private pensions.

Other benefits are due when you have a family, including surviving disability payments to your children, your dependent parent.

Social Security payments won't come to you or your family automatically. You must claim them. Check your district office help you understand and claim them. They'll be happy to help.
